SUBJECT: SHELDON COHEN,
Outgoing Commissioner of Internal Revenue; Service
REQUEST TO SAY "GOODBYE" TO DIRECTOR

Sheldon Cohen called today. He has already packed up and departed; however, he will drop back by his Internal Revenue office on several occasions to finish up loose ends prior to the time he opens an office here in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Cohen would like very much to drop by and pay his respects to the Director. He wants to thank the Director for the excellent cooperation received while head of Internal Revenue. He has no other items to discuss and stated the visit would only take a few moments. He has great respect for the Director, and we have received excellent cooperation from Cohen since he has been in office.

While Commissioner Cohen will be available at any time, at the Director's convenience, he has indicated that he will be in the Internal Revenue Building, and can merely walk across the street for this appointment if the Director finds it convenient, any time from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, on 1/22/69, and during the entire afternoon of 1/22/69.

ACTION:

Commissioner Cohen will be advised in accordance with the Director's desires.
